

EUGENIA PRICE/JOYCE BLACKBURN FOUNDATION YOUNG PLAYWRIGHTS AWARD GUIDELINES

This award is to encourage and recognize the literary talents of all public and private middle grade students in Glynn County. Originality, creativity, and content will be the basis of the judges' decisions.

The student's work will be "blind judged" by a three-person panel made up of writers and theater professionals. The students' names and schools will be deleted from their manuscripts before being sent to the judges to ensure impartiality. Judges will use the "Criteria for Judging" page (see next page) in scoring each play.

The top three scoring playwrights will receive a staged reading of their play and a cash prize. The readings are scheduled to take place on January 26, 2023 at the Historic Ritz Theater in Downtown Brunswick but this may change. Cash prizes will be awarded the evening of the readings.

1. Plays must be submitted by Friday, December 2, 2022 by 5:00pm to Golden Isles Arts & Humanities at the Historic Ritz Theatre, 1530 Newcastle Street, Brunswick, GA. (If mailed, must be postmarked by December 2nd.)
2. The work must be submitted in script form, typed or printed (ink only), double spaced, on one side of the paper only. The play may be any length. Submit a cover sheet with the title of the work, student's name, address, phone number, school name and teacher's name. Include this information only on the title page and not on the script itself.
3. Work may be the result of a classroom project under the supervision of a teacher. Teachers may also request a playwrighting workshop from Golden Isles Arts & Humanities. The Basics of Playwrighting handout should be reviewed by teachers and students.
4. Plays may be written by up to two students collaborating. If the winning play is by more than one student, the prize money will be divided up between the winners equally.
5. Plays may be based on original short stories written by the student. Adaptations of published work are not accepted.
6. For further information or questions, please contact Golden Isles Arts & Humanities at 262-6934 or e-mail at artsed@goldenislesarts.org
